NET Patient Program immediately following each program

NANETS comprehensive, one-day regional NET Education programs are offered to provide multidisciplinary training to medical professionals across North America. Physicians and allied healthcare providers come together with leaders in neuroendocrine medicine to educate and discuss NET disease and patient care in the community and across the U.S. Participants learn about standard management of patients with neuroendocrine tumors, as well as new diagnostic and therapeutic techniques. Continuing medical education (CME) credits are provided at coastal conferences.

On behalf of the North American Neuroendocrine Tumor Society (NANETS), we respectfully request your support of our upcoming NANETS Virtual Regional Conferences. We invite you to participate as an exhibitor at this half day professional education conference. This prospectus includes the conference agenda, information on exhibiting or support opportunities, and the commitment form.

Reserve your display table today! Kindly complete and return your commitment form by April 30, 2021 to NANETS staff by emailing staff@nanets.net.

WHY SUPPORT US?

NANETS supports the medical community via education, research grants and scholarships to up-and-coming medical professionals responsible for advancing NET research and treatment. NANETS is also the only organization in the U.S. that offers a comprehensive education program focused on NET disease.

In addition to making this symposium possible, your support aids these efforts. All supporters are identified on signage in the registration area and exhibit hall entrance, acknowledged in all registration packets and through additional recognition, relating to the package of choice.

WHY IS FUNDRAISING IMPORTANT?

Research and education grant support fluctuates from year to year because of its sole reliance upon pharma and foundation support.

NANETS recognizes the need to continue to fund more basic and translational investigation to advance the field, expand the knowledge base and facilitate the understanding of neuroendocrine tumors.

With over 22,000 new diagnoses each year, it is vital to grow the educational and research support critical to expansion of knowledge, awareness and treatment guidelines for NET tumors. To that end, NANETS has created the Education and Research Fund.

WHO BENEFITS FROM NANETS EDUCATION & RESEARCH FUND?

NANETS' educational efforts and research funding create short and long-term benefits across the spectrum of NET medical education, research, diagnostics and treatment.

Our regional education conferences throughout North America advance awareness of the disease and its many complex facets to community medical professionals who rarely, if ever, encounter NETs during their careers.

Patients seeking correct diagnoses and treatment to manage NET disease benefit from the education their medical oncologists and other healthcare providers receive through NET regional conferences.

For young medical professionals considering specializing in NET disease, access to grant funding from pharma and foundations is not as easily or readily available as it is to other, more widely-recognized and diagnosed diseases. NANETS' Education & Research Fund will serve as a much needed additional funding resource.

HOW WILL AN EDUCATION & RESEARCH FUND HELP NANETS SERVE MORE EFFECTIVELY AND FULFILL ITS MISSION?

Developing a funding infrastructure for the future allows NANETS to continue as a vital resource for young investigators doing cutting-edge research, and for medical professionals working to increase awareness and advance the understanding and treatment of NET disease.

WHY SHOULD I SUPPORT NANETS?

Your support will allow us to continue our mission of providing education and funding critical research initiatives that improve quality of care and save thousands of lives.

NANETS' Education & Research Fund will enhance NANETS' value to new and existing members and their patients.

Reducing our reliance on pharma and foundation support allows NANETS to advance its critical mission and goals, and to create a resource for current and future medical providers and researchers.

WAYS TO GIVE

1. Make a donation when you renew your membership.
2. Consider NANETS when making annual decisions about charitable giving.
3. Encourage colleagues to join NANETS and make a charitable contribution to support our mission.
4. Make NANETS donations a part of your major giving and estate planning strategy.
